Count your age by friends, not years. Count your life by smiles, not tears. As you get older, three things happen: The first is your memory goes, and I can't remember the other two. My life is better with every year of living it. Old age is like everything else.

Where there is love there is life To be fully seen by somebody, then, and be loved anyhow— this is a human offering that can border on miraculous. If I get married, I want to be very married: love you without knowing how, or when, or from where. I love you simply, without problems or pride.
